

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You will have to put in more time professionally if you want to prove you have what it takes to advance. There is no time to rest or vacation when the input and ideas you offer can make a difference to the amount you can earn.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You can call the shots if you make plans and organize what needs to be completed to advance. Love and romance are highlighted this month, so don't hold back. If you love someone, let your feelings be known and be sure to map out your intentions.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Play fairly. If you neglect your responsibilities, you will pay a price. Focus on what you can do to make your home and family happy, content and comfortable. You may want to set your sights on excitement and adventure but take care of personal business first.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Don't feel obliged to make changes that you aren't ready to make. Your emphasis should be on home, family and doing all you can to add to comfort to your surroundings. Love is in the stars and a romantic getaway should be discussed and planned.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): You may have to backtrack to get a project or deal finished to your personal specifications. Don't enforce change if you have doubts about the end result. A power play will leave you feeling uncertain about your next move. Don't fold under pressure.

ASTRO ADVICE MONTHLY BY EUGENIA LAST

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Everything will unfold according to plan if you have done your research and homework. A partnership will help to further your interests. Getting involved in group activities and mixing business with pleasure will result in personal and professional gains if you avoid impulsive decisions and purchases.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Nothing will be out in the open. You will have to dig deep to figure out where you stand and what's required of you in order to avoid criticism and stressful situations. Stop procrastinating and start taking care of responsibilities before someone else steps in and takes control.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Help those less fortunate and you will feel good about what you accomplish. Your ability to make reforms and to put things in proper perspective and order will attract both personal and professional attention. Expect to be offered something too good to turn down.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov.

22-Dec. 21): Easy does it. Avoiding trouble will be the name of the game. You are likely to make someone angry at the things you say and the choices you make. The less you reveal about your whereabouts, activities and plans, the less likely it is you will face opposition.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Lay down the law and put your plans in motion. The more you do to secure your position financially and contractually, the higher your rewards will be in the future. Romance looks good and doing something special with or for the one you love will pay off.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Face the facts regarding your current situation and what you need to do to make improvements. This is not the time to withhold the way you feel if you want to eliminate stress and win support. Originality will help you come up with a suitable arrangement.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Expect the unexpected and accept inevitable change. Initiate what needs to be done before someone forces you to do so. The way you handle others will determine the outcome. Diplomacy will help you stay in control and attract worthwhile partners.

Eugenia's Web sites: eugenialast.com for confidential consultations, myspace.com/eugenialast for Eugenia's blog, astroadvice.com for fun